ZONTA CLUB PLANNING ANNUAL BEEFSTEAK

The Zonta Club of Northern Valley NJ will be holding its annual all-you-can-eat Halloween Beefsteak Dinner 7-11 p.m. Friday October 27, at the Westwood Elks Lodge, 523 Kinderkamack Road, Westwood, NJ.

There will be food, prizes, raffles, baskets, disc jockey Scott Reddin, and dancing.

Guests are encouraged to wear costumes in order to compete for prizes.

The dinner provided by Nightingale Catering includes a complete meal and soft drinks.

Guests may bring their own alcoholic beverages. Tickets are $45 each.

For tickets contact Jennifer at 1-973-756-5114 or email jtalmadge33@gmail.com.

Proceeds will go directly to organizations benefiting women and to the Zonta scholarship fund, which provides two $1,500 scholarships per year for two single mothers returning to school.

The Zonta Club of Northern Valley NJ is a 501(c) 3 non-profit corporation. It is a chartered club of Zonta International (www.zonta.org) whose mission is to improve the status of women locally and internationally through advocacy and service. The club has been serving the women of Bergen County and internationally for more than 64 years. Zonta NVNJ meets every 3rd Tuesday from September through May at the Emerson Hotel in Emerson, NJ. If you are interested in learning more about membership in this organization visit the website at www.zontanvnj.org or call 201-564-7636.
